POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Cultural Anthropologist to the Federated States of Micronesia (FSM)

Opening date: May 1, 2020

Closing date: June 30, 2020

APPOINTMENT: Up to 2 years (subject to annual review and funding availability) at the FSM Office of National Archives, Culture and Historic Preservation.

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE: Our office seeks a person with a Master of Arts or Doctorate of Philosophy in the field of Cultural Anthropology, or related field, with 10 years of experience. Experience in the Pacific and Micronesia is preferred. This person should demonstrate passion and genuine interest to work in Micronesia, experience with community-based historic preservation and ethnographic planning, capacity building, and professional development locally and internationally. Although English is widely spoken, local languages (Kosraean, Pohnpeian, Yapese, or Chuukese) are used for many government meetings and all community events. Applicant must be adaptable in terms of culture, isolation, and environmental conditions and must have demonstrated ability to carry out fieldwork in such conditions.

POSITION DESCRIPTION: This is a National level position. This person will work closely with the National Historic Preservation Officer and FSM Archaeologist to build capacity in the area of Cultural Anthropology and the development of a 5-year Historic Preservation Plan. Other responsibilities may include travel time within the FSM States to carry out capacity building trainings or assist State Historic Preservation Offices on pre-approved projects, up to 20% for administrative work. With approval of the Employing Agency, professional development may take place as it supports the office and position. Official travel such as professional meetings and conferences between the FSM States and elsewhere, if approved, will be paid by the Employing Agency. While travel to the four FSM States and their Outer Islands, the Office of NACH will be responsible for salary payment throughout the term of employment.

POSITION DUTIES: The FSM Cultural Anthropologist will serve as the country's technical expert on oral history, ethnography, and historic preservation by providing guidance and expert recommendations at both the State and National levels. All work must meet the standards of the Federated States of Micronesia Cultural Policy and State Historic Preservation Laws and the Secretary of Interior's Standards. Additional responsibilities may include review of oral history collections, training of staff, performing fieldwork with the office(s), designing, developing and coordinating ethnographic surveys, assist in establishing/updating centralized cultural resource inventories, assist in producing reports related to projects, and related cultural anthropology duties. The acknowledgement of NPS support, the required disclaimer statement, and the required non-discrimination statement are required in all reports, publication, public information materials,
